

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 13

Friday, March 22, 2013

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 10:30 a.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by Reverend Michael Kimbrough of Church at the Center in Ocoee, upon invitation of Rep. Nelson:

Well, good morning. And I do thank God and my representative, Bryan Nelson, District 31, that granted me this gracious opportunity to stand before you in our great State Capitol, in this great House of Representatives and legislators. Let us pray.

My God, Creator of the universe, heaven and earth, for all things were created by You and for You. We humbly come before You with grateful hearts knowing that You make all things possible. Father, we thank You for this great state of Florida in which we live. We thank You for these great men and women that represent Your people and every citizen in the state. Lord, we pray for wisdom this morning as they conduct the business that keeps this nation moving, our cities and counties fortified—from education to health, crime prevention, children and family. We pray, Lord, that You guide their thoughts and hearts this morning. We pray for unity, Lord, that You would bridge the gap between party differences. That one common goal, one common purpose, would be the forefront of the matter—the well-being of the people of this great state.

Lord, we pray for protection today for our leaders, our President, the Governor, senators, representatives, law enforcement, armed forces and community leaders. Bless this nation—the United States as a whole and draw us closer to You, Your ways, and Your commandments. Station angels around each school today and keep the children safe and students alert. We pray, Lord, for the worker today, that is doing their very best to provide for their family. We pray for those that are unemployed and seeking work, that You will allow them to hold on a little longer as You allow this group of legislators to work through the difficulties of cutbacks and deficits. We pray, Lord, for the elderly that is pondering the question of medicine or food. For those who are struggling keeping gas in their cars just to make a living.

We need You, O God, to smile on us this morning and to endow us with an attitude of gratitude for it's because of You, and You alone, that we live and move and have our being. So we say thank You. Thank You for wealth, for creativity, for innovation, and for a mind to reason—a mind to choose good over evil, right over wrong, and truth over a lie. So we thank You, God, for this, the Sunshine State. Shine on us. Shine on us, O Lord. Shine on us that our light may shine from the south to the north. Shine on us, that our light may shine from the Southeast to the Middle East. We pray, O Lord, our God, that You will show us how to love one another and seek peace. That at the end of the day, Lord, at the end of this day, we can say that we did our best with the help of the Lord. I pray this as Your servant forever. In the name of Jesus, Amen.

WHEREAS, born into slavery in 1820 in Dorchester County, Maryland, to slaves Harriet Green and Benjamin Ross, then-known Araminta Harriet Ross was the fifth of nine children to endure the hardships and violence inherent in the relationship between master and slave until finally forging her escape from enslavement and gaining her freedom in 1849, and

WHEREAS, in 1851, married and free in the State of Pennsylvania, Harriet Ross Tubman began the 10-year mission that would make her the most famous conductor on the Underground Railroad and one of the greatest abolitionists and Civil Rights activists in American history, and

WHEREAS, with passage of the Fugitive Slave Law, the dynamics of escaping slavery had changed, leading to widespread abduction of former slaves and free Blacks; however, Tubman persevered in her efforts, rerouting the Underground Railroad to Canada and embarking on the tireless relocation of more than 300 slaves, including her parents, and

WHEREAS, with bounties totaling as much as $40,000, Tubman, a fugitive slave herself, made approximately 19 harrowing trips involving great personal hardship and grave danger, but she was never captured and never failed to deliver her "passengers" to safety, earning her the title of the "Moses of Her People," and

WHEREAS, after the outbreak of the Civil War, Harriet Ross Tubman served with the Union Army as a soldier, spy, nurse, scout, and cook, including honorable service in Fernandina Beach, where she was recognized for her ability to cure illnesses using native herbs, and was the first Black woman to lead an armed expedition into war, guiding the Combahee River

Raid, which was responsible for the liberation of more than 700 South Carolina slaves, and

WHEREAS, after the Civil War ended, Harriet Tubman returned to her home in Auburn, New York, where she spent her remaining years advocating for women's rights and serving the elderly with a generous land donation that was later named in her honor as the Harriet Tubman Home for the Aged, where she later worked and then was cared for in the period before her own death, and

WHEREAS, on March 10, 1913, Harriet Ross Tubman died of pneumonia at her home in Auburn, New York, and was buried at Fort Hill Cemetery with military honors, and

WHEREAS, Harriet Ross Tubman was an eloquent and effective speaker on behalf of the movement to abolish slavery and fought with unprecedented tenacity for human dignity, human rights, equal opportunity, and justice, and her determination and bravery continue to inspire generations of Americans, NOW, THEREFORE,

WHEREAS, the Vietnam War was fought in Vietnam from 1961 to 1975 and involved North Vietnam and the Vietcong in conflict with the United States and South Vietnam, and

WHEREAS, on August 7, 1964, the United States Congress overwhelmingly passed the Gulf of Tonkin Resolution, which effectively handed over the war-making powers to President Lyndon Johnson until such time as peace and security had returned to Vietnam, and

WHEREAS, on January 27, 1973, the Treaty of Paris was signed, which required the release of all United States prisoners of war held in North Vietnam and the withdrawal of all United States Armed Forces, and on March 30, 1973, the United States completed the withdrawal of combat troops, and

WHEREAS, during the course of the war, more than 58,000 members of the United States Armed Forces lost their lives in Vietnam and more than 300,000 were wounded, and

WHEREAS, upon their return home, members of the United States Armed Forces who served bravely and faithfully for the United States during the Vietnam War were caught in the crossfire of public debate about the involvement of the United States in the war, and the issue remained a divisive one for many years, and

WHEREAS, it was not until 1982 that the Vietnam Veterans Memorial was dedicated in the District of Columbia to commemorate those members of the United States Armed Forces who died or were declared missing in action in Vietnam, and

WHEREAS, "Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans Day" is an appropriate way to honor those members of the United States Armed Forces who served in Vietnam during the Vietnam War, NOW, THEREFORE,
